v.

Order of Continuance

EMMANUEL TORRES,

24 Mag. 1724

Defendant.

-----X

Upon the application of the United States of America and the affirmation of Benjamin A. Gianforti, Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, it is found that the defendant was charged with a violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1960 and 2 and Title 49, United States Code, Sections 46314(a) and (b)(2), in a Complaint dated April 30, 2024;

It is further found that the defendant was arrested on or about May 7, 2024 and presented before United States Magistrate Gary Stein on May 8, 2024, who released the defendant on certain bail conditions;

It is further found that, under the Speedy Trial Act, the Government is required to file an indictment or information on or before June 7, 2024;

It is further found that Sarah Sacks, Esq., counsel for defendant, and Assistant United States Attorney Benjamin A. Gianforti have engaged in discussions concerning a possible disposition of this case and are continuing discussions concerning a possible disposition of this case;

It is further found that the Government has requested a continuance to engage in further discussions with defense counsel about the disposition of this case and that the defendant, through counsel, has consented to such a continuance and has specifically waived his right to be charged in an indictment or information for an additional period not to exceed 30 days;

It is further found that the granting of such a continuance best serves the ends of justice and outweighs the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial;

ORDERED that the request for a continuance pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) is hereby granted until July 8, 2024, and that a copy of this Order and the affirmation of Assistant United States Attorney Benjamin A.
